Teen Center Code of Conduct

The social nature and other adolescent characteristics of teens require a separate Library space designed to support their need for group interaction. The Tempe Public Library Teen Center has been established to provide a unique space and age appropriate materials for this particular age group. The materials are carefully selected by professional staff and are specifically chosen for a teen audience. Library staff will not censor a teen's selection of reading material. Parents are responsible for deciding which items are appropriate for their teenage children.

The Library's Teen Center is a dedicated space for teens ages 12 through 18 or grades six through 12. It is a place to gather, mingle, socialize and use Library resources in support of their education. Therefore, the Teen Center and the computer terminals located there are reserved for use by teen patrons only.

Adults and children are welcome to access the materials available in the Teen Center but are asked to use the materials in other areas of the Library. Staff will be available to assist adults in locating materials in the Teen Center.

The Library provides the Teen Center to support the following related activities:

• Reading.
• Studying.
• Doing homework.
• Working on school projects.
• Using computers for appropriate recreation, research and communication.
• Group study and collaboration.
• Teen Advisory Group (TAG) meetings and activities.
• Gathering, mingling and socializing in an unobtrusive manner.

All teens are expected to uphold the Library Code of Conduct. In addition, activities and behaviors not appropriate, nor tolerated, in the Teen Center are:

• Sleeping.
• Physical rough housing.
• Physical or verbal fighting.
- Public displays of affection.
- Personal grooming.
- Blocking walkways or pathways.
- Putting feet on tables.
- Verbal abuse or swearing.
- Possession of weapons of any kind.
- Vandalism, graffiti or damage to Library property.

Any behavior staff considers aggressive and/or abusive may result in parents and/or police being notified with further disciplinary actions being taken. Violations of any of these guidelines will be grounds for a teen being asked to leave the Library immediately.

Information regarding the whereabouts of a teen ages 12-18 cannot be disclosed without prior consent from the minor to library staff.

The Teen Center is an area of the Library that is governed by the Library's general Code of Conduct that sets an expectation of respect for other Library users, Library staff and Library property both in words and action. The Library encourages teens to monitor each other's behavior, explore the many available resources, use the computers and Wi-Fi access wisely, turn to the Teen Services staff for assistance as needed and enjoy this space created just for them.

Unattended Children Under Age 12

Notice to Parents, Guardians & Caregivers:

The Library welcomes and encourages use by children of all ages; however, Library policy requires an adult over the age of 18 to accompany any child in 5th grade or under the age of 12.

The Library staff will not and cannot accept responsibility or liability for the safety, care, supervision or entertainment of children unaccompanied by adults.

For safety and security reasons children brought to the Library and not attended by an adult over the age of 18, the parent or guardian will be contacted to pick up the minor child. If the parent or guardian cannot be reached, then the Police Department will be contacted. The Police Department will contact parents, guardians or caregivers who may then pick up the children at the Police Department.

If the safety of children under the age of 12 is in question, the child's name, phone number and/or library account notes may be disclosed to security.
The Library reserves the right to revoke permission for use of the Library and its grounds for repeated disregard of this policy and/or offenses, for the safety of the minor child. The City also may initiate proceedings to suspend Library privileges.

Enforcement and Penalties of The Tempe Public Library

Enforcement of the Tempe Library Policy will be conducted in a fair and reasonable manner. Library staff, security and/or Tempe Police Department will intervene to stop prohibited activities and behaviors. Individuals who fail to observe the Tempe Library Policy may be asked to leave the Tempe Library, be trespassed from the Tempe Library for a period of time, be subject to arrest or be subject to other lawful action. The Library also reserves the right to revoke use of the Library and its grounds for repeated failure to comply with this Code of Conduct.

Patron name and library account notes may be disclosed to security if library staff has reason to believe the patron is breaking Tempe Public Library's Code of Conduct.

In case of serious, threatening or willfully malicious behavior, the offending person(s) will be expelled from the building immediately by security and/or police.
